

League finale

WYCOMBE Wanderers visit Tooting and Mitcham tomorrow (Tuesday) for their final Isthmian League match of the season. But they could be without two defenders, Ian Rundle and Dave Bullock.

Bullock has 'flu, while Rundle is unavailable. Both missed Saturday's trip to Clapton. It will be Wanderers second visit to Sandy Lane this season as they beat Tooting 3-1 in the F.A. Cup first qualifying round in September. Pritchard, Holifield and Hutchinson scored the goals.

Tooting, however, got their revenge when they came down to Loakes Park in November and beat the Blues 2-0 in the league. John Maskell broke his shoulder blade in that game while Alan Ives snapped up the two Tooting goals.
